Question:

Why Does the Church Have Different Liturgical Cycles?

Answer:

While most Catholics know that the Church Year is divided into various seasons (e.g. Advent, Christmas, Ordinary Time, etc.), many are unaware that the one Church Year is not like the one that follows. While the main seasons and feasts are the same from year to year, the 3-year cycle for Sundays and the 2-year cycle for weekdays means that, as a general rule, the readings in the Lectionary that we hear at Mass will change from year to year, helping us to have a richer encounter with Sacred Scripture. Each new cycle begins with the beginning of the liturgical year, the First Sunday of Advent.

The reasoning behind this innovation is outlined in Sacro-sanctum Concilium, the “Dogmatic Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy” of the Second Vatican Council: “The treasures of the bible are to be opened up more lavishly, so that richer fare may be provided for the faithful at the table of God’s word. In this way a more representative portion of the holy scriptures will be read to the people in the course of a prescribed number of years” (no. 51). This was fully achieved in 1969 when the new cycles of readings were approved by Pope Saint Paul VI.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Chosen

It is getting close to Election Day and I suppose most of us have an idea of how we will cast our vote. We have tried to discern where candidates stand on important issues and what type of leader they might be if elected. However, there is a good chance that when we go into a voting booth, we will cast at least one vote for a person who we never heard of and to do a job we do not understand. We know the more notable people in the more notable contests, but some of those on the ballot as we get further into it? Who knew that was going to be on there?

In life we will at times be asked to make a choice about something or someone we know little about. Our choices will not always be as informed as we would like. Then, when we do know some information needed to make a choice, we still don't know everything. We may support a candidate and not really know him or her personally.

When God chose you and me, He had all the information needed to make the choice. The crazy thing is He chose us anyway! He knew we would sin, turn our backs on Him, and sometimes not be very good ambassadors for Him. However, He still chose us because He loves us. We are a chosen people. We are His own. I don't know about you, but if given the chance I am not sure I would have chosen myself. I rejoice that God sees in me something that at times seems hidden to me.

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA

Elegido

Se acerca el día de las elecciones y supongo que la mayoría de nosotros tenemos una idea de cómo emitiremos nuestro voto. Hemos tratado de discernir dónde se encuentran los candidatos en asuntos importantes y qué tipo de líder podrían ser si fueran elegidos. Sin embargo, existe una buena posibilidad de que cuando ingresemos a una cabina de votación emitiremos al menos un voto para una persona de la que nunca hemos oído hablar y para hacer un trabajo que no entendemos. Conocemos a las personas más notables en los combates más notables, pero algunos de los que están en la boleta electoral a medida que avanzamos ¿Quién sabía que iban a estar allí?

En la vida, a veces se nos pedirá que elijamos algo o alguien de quien conocemos poco. Nuestras elecciones no siempre serán tan informadas como nos gustaría. Luego, cuando sabemos algo de información necesaria para tomar una decisión, aún no sabemos todo. Podemos apoyar a un candidato y no conocerlo o conocerla personalmente.

Cuando Dios nos eligió a ti y a mí, tenía toda la información necesaria para tomar la decisión. ¡Lo loco es que nos eligió de todos modos! Sabía que pecaríamos, le daríamos la espalda y, a veces, no seríamos muy buenos embajadores de Él. Sin embargo, todavía nos eligió porque nos ama. Somos un pueblo elegido. Somos suyos. No sé tú, pero si yo tuviera la oportunidad, no estoy seguro de elegirme a mí mismo. Me alegro de que Dios vea en mí algo que a veces me parece oculto a mí mismo.

Sharing the Gospel

When you grow up and earn money, you will have to pay taxes. Taxes pay for many good things that keep us safe and healthy. When you grow up in your faith, you will want to give God some of the money you earn, because all you have is a gift from God.

Prayer

God, teach me to use money wisely so my community and my church can grow.

Something to Draw

Draw a picture of yourself putting money in the collection at church.

Mission for the Week

Take care of God's world. Together as a family, clean up trash that's lying around in your neighborhood.
